Important: A Nikah alone is not automatically a legal marriage in Ontario. If you want one ceremony for both, make sure your officiant is registered.

Tip: An Ontario marriage licence is valid for 3 months, so do not apply too early.*

Step 1:
Get Your Ontario Marriage Licence

A Nikah alone is not automatically a legal marriage in Ontario.
Follow these steps for the government process.

1. Apply online
   Apply online for an Ontario marriage license. You can also go directly to City Hall, but online is often faster.

2. Pick up your licence in person
   Go to your city or municipality to pick it up. Bring the required ID.

3. Bring the licence on the wedding day
   Make sure you have the marriage license with you on the day of the Nikah.

4. Use a registered officiant
   Make sure the imam or officiant you choose is registered in your locality.

5. Review the Nikah Details
   Confirm the date, time, location, and arrival time with your imam or officiant.

6. Paperwork after the ceremony
   The imam or officiant fills out and files the legal marriage paperwork after the ceremony.

7. Order your marriage certificate
   About 3-4 months later, the bride and groom apply online for the Ontario marriage certificate. The imam does not do this.

Need it quicker?

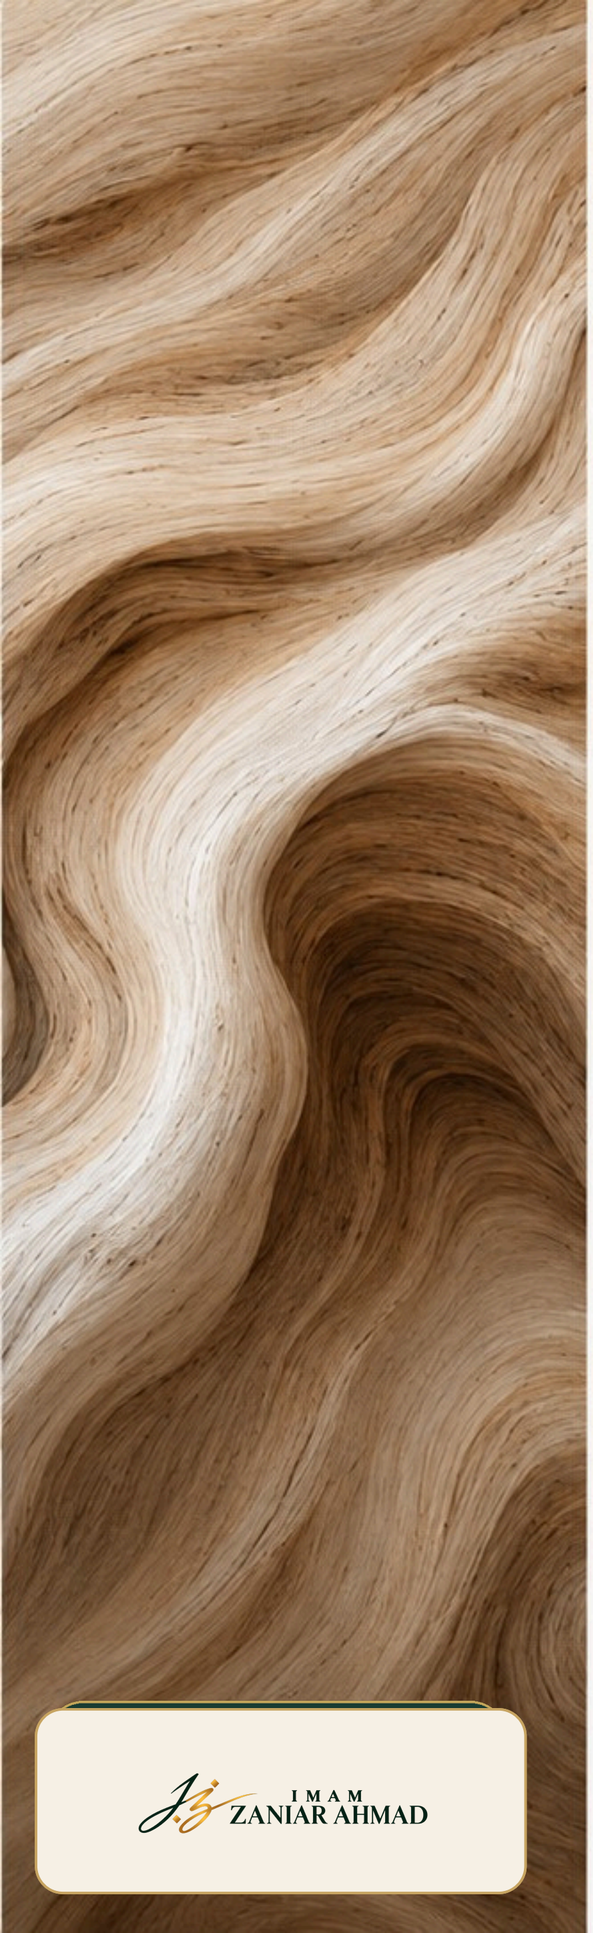

- Apply online first for your Ontario marriage certificate.
- About 1 week after the imam mails the marriage licence, submit an urgent request to the Office of the Registrar General.
- Keep your marriage licence number, date of marriage, application reference, and tracking number ready for the day of the wedding to complete paperwork.

Step 2: Complete the Islamic Nikah Requirements

1

Consent of the bride and groom

Both the bride and groom must willingly agree to the marriage.

2

Wali (guardian for the bride)

A wali is the bride's guardian. This may be the father, brother, uncle, or grandfather. The wali may be present in person or online. In some cases, he may permit someone else to represent him. In certain circumstances, the imam may act as the wali.

3

Mahr (bridal gift)

A mahr is an agreed gift from the groom to the bride. It can be cash, gold, jewelry, memorizing a surah, Umrah, or another agreed gift. It should be reasonable.

Muqaddam: given on the wedding day	Muakhkhar: given later	Give some now & some later

4

Islamic witnesses

The Nikah requires either two Muslim men, or one Muslim man and two Muslim women as witnesses. Witnesses may be present in person or online when needed.

Bring on the day

- ✓ Bride and groom names
- ✓ Wali contact or representation
- ✓ Witness names
- ✓ Mahr details
- ✓ Marriage licence
- ✓ Any IDs or forms needed

! If your mahr or wali situation is complicated, speak to an experienced imam for guidance.
